Committed to buy elsewhere, this is a genuine sale of an immaculately presented apartment with one of the most magnificent kitchens I have seen in years. This top floor Chevron Island stunner is ideal for the owner or investor. First class finishes have been used in its fresh, Hamptons-inspired interior and from entry you will be greeted with WOW-factor galore. With modest body corporate, high rent potential and huge lifestyle potential, apartments of this calibre in THIS price range do not appear often.

Three balconies and clean white neutrals help flood this home with natural light. Outdoor entertaining is set against a spectacular backdrop of the Surfers skyline reminding you of how close you are to the beach and glitter strip whilst being out of the hustle and bustle...
