50 Central Street, Labrador

Sitting on your deck and seeing the twinkling lights of the high-rises will remind you just how close you are to the Broadwater living here. This double-storey executive Queenslander offers a fabulous location with a beautiful interior that combines contemporary touches with the original warmth of the polished timber floor boards. A fully fenced rear yard is beautifully landscaped and there is plenty of secure parking under the home for 4 vehicles. The 4th bedroom, study/storeroom and additional bathroom are on the lower level with external access making it ideal for a home office.
