 With a balcony area almost as big as the whole internal unit, this apartment boasts one of the largest outdoor areas we've EVER seen in a building. Freshly painted and carpeted it still has those 'new home feels' and is an absolute must to inspect. A 10 min stroll to Westfield Helensvale, train and tram station this is an awesome location where a car is not required. Currently rented to wonderful tenants and very well managed, this property is a "no-brainer" addition to your portfolio or a perfect future residence.
 Extras like the whole lockable storage room in the basement make this property unique and excellent value. With the lack of quality, well priced apartments on the Gold Coast and th...
